

Bibliographic utilities are information vendors who provide a centralized database for libraries and information centers.

It operates with high quality cataloging information and related products or services for resource sharing and operation.

Provide concurrent access to the bibliographic databases on time sharing basis

To maintain the standard of bibliographic records formats

To provide an interface to each member library that enables data communication between two systems

BIBLIOGRAPHIC UTILITIES

- OCLC
- INIS
- RLIN

gives access to the world of knowledge through large bibliographic databases

Provide tools to the member libraries for addition and modification of bibliographic records supports standard machine-readable cataloging (MARC) formats.